

SKOLER, ABBOTT & PRESSER, P.C.
Exclusively Representing Management in Labor and Employment Law

Skoler, Abbott & Presser invites you to join us for an important
BREAKFAST BRIEFING

MEDICAL MARIJUANA UPDATE:
 Challenges for Employers Under the New Statute

How will your workplace be affected by the new statute that has legalized the use of medical marijuana in Massachusetts? Although there are no dispensaries open to sell marijuana, doctors may prescribe the drug, and individuals with a prescription may grow their own. This breakfast briefing will discuss the new laws and requirements regarding medical marijuana and the impact on employers and drug testing. We will discuss issues and concerns and offer advice on dealing with issues that may arise under this new statute.

Attorneys: Susan G. Fentin and Jasmin M. Rojas
